THOMAS DECRIES P.O.

DEMANDS CONGRESSMAN GIVE PLEDGE TO WORK FOR INDEPENDENT OFFICE

Just a subterfuge, or a rural delivery with a relay station, and you have a description of the Glendale postoffice.

About four years ago Congressman Randall, of this district, took the matter before the postal authorities at Washington and succeeded in obtaining an order from Secretary Burleson to the effect that Glendale was to have a postoffice. The order was to take effect January 1, 1917. A telegram from Burleson to that effect was read to the people here. Following that, steps were taken to obtain an appropriation for a postoffice at Glendale. A bill was introduced in congress and was lost. A little talk on the part of the congressman, in the way of excuses, and the matter sank into oblivion. If such an order was made, then Glendale had a postoffice January 1, 1917, whether there was any money in the treasury or not; whether we had a postoffice building or not; and a postmaster should have been appointed for this city. What are the conditions? To go further into detail here is impossible. There are no details. Nothing has been done to make details.

What we want is a congressman—a man that is alive—one who can do something when he tries. There are people so far away from business qualifications that their efforts fail

Visit Bride and Groom

A number of friends called Monday evening on Mr. and Mrs. V. Morse, a recent bride and groom, living at 145 South Everett street. A social time was enjoyed, with music, dancing, and cards. Light refreshments were served those present, who were Mr. and Mrs. Frank George and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. East, Misses Cecil and Edna Bronnenberg, Mary Carr and Ethel Bishop, and Messrs. Harry Bronnenberg and Hamilton, the latter of Los Angeles.

Democratic Meeting

About twenty prominent Democrats, men and women, met Tuesday evening at the home of Colonel Tom Thornton, Brand and California avenue, to take steps looking toward the organization of a Cox and Roosevelt club and making an active campaign for the election of their candidates. Considerable enthusiasm was displayed and it was unanimously voted to hold a mass meeting at the High School auditorium some evening in the near future to organize the campaign club and plan for work.

STRAW VOTE

BALLOT FOR PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES TAKEN BY DRUG COMPANY SURPRISING

The daily record of the straw vote on presidential candidates displayed in Spohr's drug store window is attracting considerable interest. This vote is taken in the stores of the United Drug Company, some of which are in every state and are not colored in the slightest by partisanship. The states are divided into two groups, thirteen Southern states and thirty-five Northern, Middle and Western. In the first group Cox has a majority everywhere except in Maryland, which is very close and the twelve states have 167 electoral votes. In the thirty-five states of the second group Harding has a substantial majority in all but one, New Mexico, which gixes him but a slight lead over Cox. These thirty-five states have 356 electoral votes.

Yesterday's vote was Harding, 8915; Cox, 4267. Of Harding's total 3120 were cast by women voters and of Cox's 1443. The total ballots taken in up to yesterday were 240,732. In the North, Middle and Western group Harding has 116,648 to Cox's 15,746. In the Southern group Harding has 20,181 to Cox's 34,839. A significant fact noted in the vote of every state is that Harding gets a larger majority of women's votes than men's votes. Thus in a state showing a Harding vote as 2 to 1 over Cox among the men, it will be 3 to 1 among the women.

California's vote to date is Harding, 4181; Cox, 1863. Ohio's is Harding, 16,013; Cox, 7509. Illinois is Harding, 9583; Cox, 3682, and New York's is almost in the same ratio. These states have been claimed by some of the leading Democrats.

CITY QUESTIONS

QUESTIONS FOR MUNICIPAL CONSIDERATION SHOULD FIRST BE CONSIDERED AT MASS MEETING

In yesterday's issue of the Evening News reference was made to the need of the citizens of Glendale deciding upon what municipal improvements are necessary before the question of making such improvements is taken before the Board of Trustees of the city for official consideration. No doubt the Trustees know what is for the best interests of the city, and are able to carry out a good business program of municipal improvements if they were allowed to carry out their own plans. But, since they are aware that they are servants of the people, it is only reasonable that they should listen to the suggestions of the citizens, and it is perfectly right that all citizens should have the privilege of making suggestions. But, these suggestions should not be made in a haphazard manner. They should be made at mass meetings or public meetings held by the citizens, and then, after the majority agree upon a policy to be carried out, the proposition up for consideration should be presented to the Board for official action.

As conditions are at present, a few men in one part of the city will get together and decide that it is a good plan to have a certain improvement made, and they present their case to the Board. The Board takes it up for official consideration, and immediately there appears a number of citizens before them opposing the project that had been previously recommended by others, and then begin lengthy discussions that take the time of the Board of Trustees, and many unkind words are said, and the result is there is no action taken on the question that came up for consid-

Election of Freeholders

L. T. Rowley informs the Evening News that at the meeting held last evening to discuss the matter of an election for 15 freeholders to draft a charter for the city of Glendale, which question has twice recently failed to come to a vote because of the reluctance of the people to take decisive action, it was decided to bring the matter before the Board of Trustees tonight and the request was made that every member of the Greater Glendale Development Association and other civic bodies, as well as citizens in general, be present.

Entertains S. S. Class

Miss Margaret Lou Cory, 820 S. Central avenue, entertained Miss Field's Bible school class of the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. Games were enjoyed, and refreshments served. Those present were Misses Pearl Dean, Ruth Babcock, Elizabeth Simpson, Marjorie Hock, Helen Lynd, Helen Gaskin, Mabel Horner, Esther Phillipi, Winifred Thompson, Ruth and Esther Edmonds and Margaret Lou Cory.

Glendale Restaurant

The Glendale Restaurant, 113 E. Broadway, has been sold by D. Ruggiero to Andy Williams. Mr. Williams is giving the restaurant a thorough renovating and redecorating, and will be open for business in about a week. Mrs. H. C. Phelon, of the White-Smith Realty Co., made the sale.

E. Critchlow and family are moving from 1315 East Harvard to 5818 Buchanan street, Los Angeles.

LAMPERTS HOME

TRAVEL 7600 MILES IN FOUR MONTHS—GLAD TO BE BACK

John P. Lampert and wife left Glendale on June 7th for an extended auto trip to visit some of the beauty spots of the Northwest and then go on to spend some time with relatives in Wisconsin, Illinois and Nebraska. Their first stop after leaving home was at Salinas to spend a day or two with their daughter Gladys, then recently married. Then they went on through Northern California, Oregon and Washington to the Bitter Root country near the British Columbia line. Yellowstone Park was visited and the next objective was Omaha, Neb., where they left the machine and went to Chicago by rail and thence to Milwaukee by boat. After a few weeks spent with relatives and old friends in Wiscon-

BROOKLYN AGAIN DEFEATS CLEVELAND

DODGERS TAKE THIRD GAME OF SERIES BY 2 TO 1 SCORE; NEXT GAME AT CLEVELAND SATURDAY

BROOKLYN, Oct. 7.—Brooklyn forged to the lead in the 1920 world series here this afternoon when Sherrod Smith pitched a three-hit game, defeating Cleveland by a score of 2 to 1.

The series now stands 2 to 1 in favor of Brooklyn. The teams will resume play at Cleveland on Saturday.

Brooklyn won the game in the first inning, scoring two runs on singles by Wheat and Myers, after Olson had walked. Griffith was safe on Sewell's error.

Mails relieved Caldwell for Cleveland in the first inning. Cleveland scored her run in the fourth inning on a double by Speaker. POLAND'S PEACE VICTORIES

GAIN MORE TERRITORY INCLUDING ANOTHER CORRIDOR SEPARATING RUSSIA AND LITHUANIA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Poland has gained notable victories in her preliminary peace agreement with Russia. The Poles gain another corridor separating Russia from Lithuania and more territory to the eastward, with better transportation.

An armistice effective Friday provides for 25 days of peace, with the opportunity for automatic extension. Meanwhile, fighting continued on all fronts, with the Poles advancing eastward.

According to the Morning Post the agreement reached at Riga provides:

First, cessation of hostilities within six days.

Second, that both sides withdraw within agreed lines within seven days after the armistice is effective.

Third, military, civil stores and some railroad supplies need not be evacuated.

Fourth, a neutral zone of thirty kilometers east of the armistice line is provided, the Poles retaining thereby all their own territory.

Fifth, the armies are not to fraternize.

Sixth, the armistice is effective in twenty-five days.

It is expected ensuing negotiations will be held in Paris or London.

EXPLOSION OF STEAMSHIP

TWELVE REPORTED KILLED ON STEAMSHIP CROW IN DOCKS AT BROOKLYN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A terrific explosion on the steamship Crow in the Brooklyn docks this afternoon killed several persons. Police said there were twelve dead. Two bodies had been recovered. Many injured in the hold of the ship were threatened with suffocation.

There were nearly one hundred ship workers aboard the Crow when the explosion occurred. Its origin is not known.

Every available ambulance in Brooklyn was rushed to the scene.

OPPOSE UNIVERSITY TAX

LABOR CONVENTION REAFFIRMS ATTITUDE TAKEN LAST YEAR ON JAPANESE QUESTION

FRESNO, Oct. 7.—The State Labor Federation twenty-first annual convention resembled a huge love feast on the fourth day of the convention.

President Daniel Murphy and Secretary-Treasurer Paul Scharrenberg were re-elected without opposition.

The only resolution touching upon the Japanese problem introduced today reaffirmed labor's attitude last year, calling for the abolition of the "Gentlemen's Agreement" with Japan, declaring against picture brides, and against allowing children of alien parents ineligible to citizenship to become citizens.

Indications today were that labor will oppose the special University of California tax.

DENTON CASE AT STANDSTILL

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 7.—Investigation of the Denton murder case had today run up against a blank wall. The murder was to be probed by the county grand jury on Saturday, according to the district attorney's announcement.

IDEAL AUTO TRIP

FAMILY OF SIX, TWO FRIENDS, JOURNEY LEISURELY, BOSTON TO L. A.

On July 21, in Stoughton, a suburb of Boston, the Dykman family and two friends finished packing themselves and a complete camping outfit into a Chevrolet Baby Grand and on to a Ford truck, then began their westward journey. They crossed Massachusetts, passed through Albany and Schnectady, then journeyed on to Niagara Falls, where they stopped for a day and went over into Canada. In the party were Percy Dykman and wife, their three daughters, Hazel, Sylvia and Martha, the son, Percy, Jr., and two young friends, Paul Swansen and Edgar Malcolm. Percy, Jr., drove the truck and the other two boys took turns riding with him, while the others occupied the Chevrolet.

From Niagara Falls the journey was continued to Buffalo, Cleveland and Chicago, where a day was spent. Omaha and Kansas City were passed through. Also, after a day's stop in Tama, Iowa, to see a great gathering of Indians. From Kansas City the route was over the Santa Fe trail the remainder of the way to Los Angeles, which was reached on September 2, after a trip lasting forty-three days, during which they had camped out nearly every night and changed three tires.

They stopped a week and camped in Elysian Park, then, hearing of Glendale, came out here to look at property, finally buying the Netherly place at 110 West Maple. All now consider themselves permanent citizens of Glendale, young Swanson and Malcolm as well as the Dykman family. They found the best roads in New York state, all that they passed over being of macadam or concrete, and California's were next, they said.

Double Birthday Party

Mrs. L. C. Leeds, 115 North Central avenue, entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of the birthday of her grandmother, Mrs. Van Orman, 667 Patterson avenue, and of her husband's mother, Mrs. L. C. Leeds, of Dallas, Texas, who is spending the winter here. Mrs. Van Orman was entitled to eighty-one candles on her cake. The ladies played feature games, and especially enjoyed the chewing-gum contest, a prize being offered to the sculptor of the best chewing-gum animal, which was won by Mrs. R. B. Warner, 429 North Kenwood.

Refreshments were served the guests, and group pictures of the party were taken on the lawn.

READING CIRCLE

LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT PUBLIC LIBRARY YESTERDAY

The meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle, held at the library yesterday afternoon, was a large and enthusiastic gathering. Mrs. A. A. Barton, the president, was in charge. Mrs. W. H. Dodson gave a review of Margaret Deland's article, "Who Is the Educated Woman?" This discussion brought out the fact that our grandmothers held just as high ideals of accomplishment as the present-day woman, but lacked the practical knowledge of how to carry them into effect. The old-time plan of private school and governess was compared with the modern school, and the great advantage of the latter was shown.

Mrs. C. H. Crawford made a plea for the support of the Twelfth Amendment, which will be on the November ballot. If this amendment does not carry, 10,000 students at the State University will have to be turned away, because of lack of funds.

Mrs. C. H. Pendleton gave a report for the committee on Christmas work to be done by the Reading Circle. The members have decided to issue an art calendar entitled "Calendar of Immortelle," which will include quotations that have been given during the year. Mrs. Kirk Smith, one of the members, and instructor in art at the State University, will design the calendar. It will be ready for distribution by November 15th.

Mrs. P. J. Priaulx was appointed social secretary to succeed Mrs. H. V. Henry, who resigned to accept a position as press correspondent for the district.

After lunch, the reading of "Increasing Home Efficiency" was continued, dwelling especially on the use of the budget system in the home.

HOME DEALER BEST

PEDDLERS' "BARGAINS" SHOULD ALWAYS BE INVESTIGATED

This is the season of the year when peddlers do abound, some of them honest and square, others out to "do" the unsuspecting housewife. A favorite swindle is the selling at a very low price of "country cured hams, some that were cured on dad's ranch and offered at a bargain rather than wholesale them, only a few left at this low price per pound." In nearly every case the so-called hams prove to be shoulders, so the price is not at all low. Another favorite bargain is in apples, the claim generally advanced by the peddler being that too many carloads have been received by Los Angeles commission houses and one was dumped on the market to bring what it would. Often the fruit is almost worthless, on account of being so soft it rots very quickly, and often when the apples are perfectly good they are in 30 to 35-pound boxes, when the minimum allowed by law in California is 40 lbs. Yesterday apples were offered on the streets of Glendale as a great bargain when the price asked was 30c more than they were selling for in the grocery stores, as advertised in the Evening News. Potatoes offered by the sack are often of such short weight that the purchaser really pays more than the retail price. Except in rare cases apples, potatoes and smoked meats are sold cheaper, weights and quality considered, than by peddlers, and then you can always get any wrong righted by your home grocer while the peddler you may likely never see again.

High "Y" Second Unit

The first meeting of Glendale's "High Y" second unit was held last evening at 7:30. Plans for the coming year were discussed and enlarged upon. Officers were elected, those chosen being Frederick Stofft, president; Paul W. Edmonds, vice-president; Clarence Hall, secretary.

The members of this unit feel that they are very fortunate in having Harry Marple as leader and Rev. W. E. Edmonds as advisory member, to act with the president and District Secretary R. C. Kelley.

Great things are being expected this year from this group. A football team is already being organized which will challenge Y. M. C. A. teams in this and other cities.

Tuesday Afternoon Club

At a meeting of chairmen of the various committees of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, which was held at the home of its president, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, 246 North Orange St., on Wednesday afternoon, plans were discussed for the coming club season in order that all chairmen should familiarize themselves with the work which they have assumed and pass these suggestions to their committees with the idea that co-operation not only by those holding such positions but by every individual member of the club be a goal to strive for. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Present were Mesdames C. E. Hutchinson, H. E. Bartlett, C. H. Temple, LeRoy Bosserman, Archer, Sinclair, E. D. Yard, W. E. Evans, E. S. McKee, H. D. Goss, A. W. Tower, W. W. McElroy, Frank Ayars and Harry Lynch, also Miss Eva Daniels.

EVENING NEWS AIDS

DONALD HUGHES FINDS OLD FRIENDS BY HELP OF PAPER

When Donald Hughes, who had come all the way from Glen's Ferry, Idaho, to visit old friends and fellow-townsmen, Dr. W. C. Minier and wife, and could find no trace of them at the address given, 336 West Colorado, he was almost in despair. For two days he followed up clues, but in vain. Meanwhile the Evening News published a statement of his dilemma. The article was seen by Mrs. Minier and her son came to the Evening News office last night to inquire about Donald Hughes, and left the present address of the family, 134 South Eagledale avenue, Eagle Rock. So when Mr. Hughes dropped into the Evening News office this morning to further prosecute his inquiries, he was given the address and at once departed to visit it and greet his old friends. He was very grateful to the Evening News for its share in bringing him into contact with his friends and thus saving him from having made the long trip from Idaho to Glendale for nothing.

THOMAS DECRIES P.O.

because of the lack of influence. Such were the conditions surrounding this matter. The people of Glendale should call a mass meeting and appoint a committee to call upon Mr. Van de Water, the present candidate on the Republican ticket for congress in this district. That committee does not want a promise from Mr. Van de Water that he will TRY to get us a postoffice. It wants a promise that he WILL get us such, because such can be obtained by any congressman who has any fighting blood in him. Conditions here warrant this assertion. Glendale is a city of nearly 20,000 people. To have our mail delivered by filtering it through Los Angeles is absurd and no argument founded on sense and justice could prevail to continue such a system. An answer should be forthcoming at once as to what Mr. Van de Water will do, that the people of this city may know how to vote at the coming election.

This matter has lain dormant long enough, and the time has come when the people of Glendale should and will act. There is too much politics and too much Los Angeles sprinkled over our city. Much has been said about the assistance which Glendale gets from Los Angeles and its Chamber of Commerce, but the writer has failed to see where we should spend much time or energy in paying homage to Los Angeles. We are denied practically a sewerage system because we will not join or annex to Los Angeles and help to pay its bonded indebtedness. We are without a postoffice, probably for the same reason.

Congressman Randall's hands have been tied, probably because his hands were behind him when he was looking toward Glendale.

Now, we want an expression from the candidate for congress from this district regarding our postoffice. We want him to know that we have been aggravated to such an extreme degree that we must and will have an expression regarding this matter from him.

The idea that a city of perhaps 20,000 people is denied a postoffice because our congressman did not support certain bills for some other politician or set of politicians is ludicrous, nonsensical, and unfair, and the only way we will obtain our rights, is to rise in our wrath at this time, on the eve of election, and demand our rights, insisting that we will have them, and be in a position on election day to show at least our loyalty to our home city.

Respectfully,
L. S. THOMAS,
123 N. Brand Blvd.

Selecting Beef

Have you wondered just why sirloin steaks could be purchased from one market at thirty cents while another dealer charged fifty cents for the same cut on that same day? Or why the rump roast you ordered last week was juicy and tender while the one which you ordered yesterday was tough and stringy, although you paid the same price per pound for both and purchased them from the same dealer?

The fact that sirloin steaks can be purchased at such variable prices on the same day does not necessarily mean that one dealer is underselling the other on the same article. The first may be a sirloin cut from a cow or steer of common grade while the latter is from a cow or steer of good or choice grade. The two roasts no doubt varied just as widely in grade. As a rule, a dealer habitually carries the same grade of meat, that best suited to his class of customers. However, when a dealer does carry more than one grade of meat, he usually sells the same cuts from all grades at the same price. Until the public learns that grade as well as cut determines the quality of beef and should also determine the price, cuts of low grade will be retailed at the same price that similar cuts of good or choice grade command, although the difference in wholesale price is sometimes as much as seven or eight cents per pound between medium grade and common meat. The housewife should know not only the cuts of meat but should learn to distinguish between these grades if she would select her meat wisely and economically.

Four grades, choice, good, medium, and common, which cover all dressed beef usually offered for sale to retail meat dealers, have been adopted by the Bureau of Markets, United States Department of Agriculture. These grades are determined by the following points:

1. The color and texture of the lean meat; and the extent to which it is marbled with fat.

2. The thickness of meat covering the bone; that is the proportion of meat to bone.

3. The amount and character of the outside fat and its general distribution and color.

4. The amount of inside fat, such as kidney fat on the loin cut and the fat on the inside of the ribs.

Choice grade beef is not at present found regularly in most markets, and the supply is limited. In it the characteristics of the good grade are accentuated—pronounced marbling of fat, smooth, uniform outside covering of clear white fat, and firm fine texture flesh of light-red color.

Good grade beef has lean meat of light to medium-red color, of firm, even texture and a fairly regular distribution of fat through the lean, giving the meat a slightly marbled or mottled appearance. The fat is firm and usually a creamy white. The outer covering of fat is smooth and firm and should be evenly distributed over the loins and ribs.

Medium grade beef has meat of coarse texture and dark color which is inclined to be flabby and watery. The fat is flabby and usually yellowish in color and is unevenly distributed, there being almost no inside fat and a scanty and irregular outside covering.

Common grade beef has a very high percentage of bone to meat. The meat is extremely coarse in texture with no marbling of fat; is dark in color and very watery. The fat, which is very scanty, is usually of a pronounced yellow color.

The cuts of good grade beef, when compared with cuts of common grade, are much more palatable, but this is not all. A series of tests made in the experimental kitchen of the Department of Agriculture on the cooking quality of the different grades of beef shows that the shrinkage in cooking is much greater for common grade, watery meat than from good grade meat; also, the proportion of bone to meat is higher in the common grade, making the amount of cooked edible meat obtained from one pound as purchased of common grade meat considerably lower than the amount from a pound of good grade meat of similar cut.—The Classmate.

Even in tips there's profiteering. The waiter who used to be content with a 10 per cent tip for a one-dollar meal now expects a 25 per cent tip for a two-dollar meal.

Some of the things which many persons present as their convictions create more amusement than assurance.

Karl Harter and Tom Wallace, who have been visiting the former's aunt, Mrs. C. M. Sparr, 234 South Jackson street, left recently for their homes in Tampa, Florida. They expect to return to California in the near future, and make Glendale their home.

While very fortunately there has thus far been no return of the flu epidemic this fall, as was predicted by some doctors early in the year, there is a great prevalence of colds, hardly anyone escaping. While many have been prostrated for a few days there have been no dangerous cases.

Contractor H. J. Eggers, who is in charge of the construction of the Glendale Sanitarium and nurses' dormitory, has built or is now building 13 residences in Glendale, also, the most of them on North Isabel. There are five of them on adjoining lots in one place and all are modern in every respect.

Mrs. H. G. Powers, who has just left Glendale after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. George A. McCormack, 520 South Brand, and returned to her home in Missouri, writes that she is homesick for California, and expects to return at an early date to make her home in Glendale.

George W. Aiton, banker and financier of Hutchison, Kansas, is visiting old friends in Glendale for a few days. He has made many trips to California and always visits in Glendale. His last trip here was about three months ago, and Mr. Aiton says that he is astounded at the progress and increase in building that have taken place in that short time.

All persons who may be interested in the League of Nations and Democracy are cordially requested to attend and participate in this initial meeting and promote the success of this organization.

By Authority of

MRS. MATTISON B. JONES
TOM C. THORNTON

C. W. Spickerman has begun the erection of a three-room house and a garage at 131 North Kenwood, to cost $2400.

Mesdames Lenora Godfrey and Hannah Everett, 515 North Kenwood, have gone on a visit to friends in Orange.

A. H. Sanford arrived here from Bishop Wednesday to attend his wife's funeral today. Bruce Alexander, a relative of the deceased from Corona, is here also.

V. W. Prosser of 366 East Broadway has sold his home to Mr. and Mrs. Dallas M. Cookingham, who will move there at an early date. Mr. Prosser expects to remain in Glendale and build a new home.

Glendale friends of Mrs. Walters of San Jacinto, who was formerly Miss Gladys Carry of Glendale, will be interested in knowing that a tiny girl by the name of Alvina Luella is now making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Walters.

Mrs. L. G. Barnes has bought the five-room residence at the southwest corner of Isabel and California avenue and is having it moved to a lot she owns on the east side of San Fernando Road, between Magnolia and Cypress avenues.

Mrs. C. C. Buffinger of Medford, Oregon, has come for an extended visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. Paine and Dr. Paine-Jackman, 515 North Kenwood. The latter has returned to Glendale after a two months' vacation at Santa Monica.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Alspach of Illinois, a recent bride and groom, are here on their honeymoon visiting the former's brother, F. A. Alspach, and his family, 1213 Mariposa. They all went to Mt. Lowe last night, and are taking other sightseeing trips.

North Isabel street is keeping up its wonderful building record. The latest addition to the large number of beautiful residences going up on this street is that of W. E. Rouch, 5 rooms, also a garage, at 514. The cost of the improvement will be $4500.

Mesdames Helen Jones and Violet Morgan of 323 West Cerritos avenue have just returned from a week's visit with the latter's parents at Picksley, and Mrs. Jones' relatives at Fresno. They report a delightful trip, which included a visit to the Fresno fair.

Members of the West Glendale M. E. church are greatly pleased that their faithful pastor, W. W. Cookman, was returned by the conference held last week and this in Long Beach. This will be Rev. Cookman's third year in Glendale as pastor of the West Glendale church.

Harold Dawson, formerly connected with the Dodge Service Station, who left Glendale a few weeks ago to do engineering work in Mexico, was in the city yesterday. He had gone only as far as El Paso but on his return to that city will proceed to his destination down in Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Allewelt, 331 West Lexington Drive, have as their guests for the winter their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Vance and son, of Galesburg, Illinois. Mr. Vance and family motored to Glendale, spending five weeks en route and stopping at places of interest.

Miss H. M. Smith and aunt, Mrs. Thomas Climie, of Thamesville, Canada, are the guests of Mrs. J. W. Smith of 415 West Elk avenue. Miss Smith and Mrs. Climie are very much delighted with the appearance and climate of Glendale, and have decided to remain here and will purchase a home in the near future.

A. S. Knox of the Exide Service Station, accompanied by his wife, went up to Fresno on a business and pleasure trip last Friday, returning yesterday. They went by the Valley route and came back down the coast. No place looked so good to him as Glendale, Mr. Knox said. The roads were quite good on the main highways, but from Fresno over to Paso Robles they were very, very bad.

Melvin T. Jones of La Canada, driving north on Glendale avenue yesterday in his Dodge car, collided with a Ford driven by Mrs. Janet Perkins of 353 Milford, who, driving north on Verdugo Road, swung around to come south on Glendale avenue. The Ford was not injured, but the Dodge had the fenders, light, a hub cap and the hind wheel on the right side considerably damaged.

Mrs. Louisa C. Davenport, aged 76, died last night at 11:30, of cancer, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Homer Foster, near Roscoe. She and the Fosters formerly lived in Glendale. She was a native of Massachusetts. Funeral services will be held at the Little Church of the Flowers tomorrow, 10:30 a. m., the L. G. Scovern Company in charge, with interment in Forest Lawn.

Lester Jones and wife, who recently sold their home at 305 North Cedar, are moving in with Mrs. Effie Crawford, 301 North Cedar, until they can build again, which they have firmly resolved to do.

Vine street, especially that portion west of Pacific avenue, is keeping up with the march of progress in building. Several small modern residences have been built in that section recently and much has been done in remodeling of or adding to houses already standing. The latest improvement of this kind is at 625, where Vern R. Noble is building a garage and an addition to his house.

Frank Lewis, a Chinese doctor living in Pasadena, whose car collided with J. L. Martin's taxi one day a few weeks ago as he was turning north from Broadway on to Central avenue, both cars being considerably damaged, was tried before Judge Lowe Tuesday on a charge of reckless driving made by Mr. Martin. The trial was before a jury and consumed several hours, finally resulting in an acquittal.

Rev. C. R. Norton and wife attended the funeral, yesterday afternoon, of Mrs. W. G. Wilson, at 1174 West 39th Place and Rev. Norton assisted in the services. Rev. Wilson is a retired Methodist minister. He and his wife, before their marriage, when she was Miss Jennie White, were fellow students of Rev. Norton at Wesleyan University, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and they have been very close friends ever since.

Wm. L. Miller died at 2 o'clock this morning, Oct. 7, 1920, at the home of his stepson, Hearn Robinson, 324 Milford, with whom he and his wife had been living for some years. Mr. Miller was born in Hornbeke, Tenn., in May, 1848. He had been living in Glendale for the past 6 years. A step-daughter, Mrs. G. E. Alexander, is the only other relative than the two named above, who survive him. Funeral services will be announced later. The body is at the L. G. Scovern Undertaking Company parlors.

It is with much regret that the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. McAllister Randall learn of their departure today for South Pasadena to reside. Their new home will be at 601 El Centro, South Pasadena. The Randalls have lived in Glendale for the past eight years, and only the fact that Mr. Randall's employment is elsewhere causes them to leave. He was with Payne & Moode for a number of years, then with Gordon L. Smith and lastly with S. W. Christy, where he is succeeded by Clark Christy, son of the proprietor.

Time to Vote

According to the election laws of California every employer of labor is commanded to allow each one of his employes who wishes to vote in any election, two hours for the purpose, without any deduction from his or her pay. This gives no one any excuse for failing to exercise the right of franchise. Voters living in Glendale and working in Los Angeles can well afford to take this time off and the small expense of carfare, if necessary, to make the trip to the polls, for no trouble is too great for an American citizen to take to register his sentiments on public questions and candidates. This applies to members of all parties.

The church night supper at Central Christian last evening brought out the usual large attendance, there being nearly 70 present to partake of the meal and the fellowship. All were glad to greet again Mrs. Mary E. Shropshire, who was present after an absence of several months in Ontario. The bible study on the book of John was made very interesting by Rev. Cole and Mrs. E. H. Learned conducted the prayer meeting, following, in her usual reverent manner. In the afternoon the missionary society of the church held one of the best monthly meetings in its history, at the home of Mrs. Bennett, 217 South Jackson.

sin and Illinois they returned to Omaha and then, at the conclusion of visits with relatives and friends at the old home in Nebraska, they turned their faces homeward, following the Santa Fe trail until New Mexico was reached, when they branched off toward the center of the state, fully 200 miles south of the Santa Fe railroad, where they passed through regions where civilization had never entered. In fact, Mrs. Lampert said it carried her back in fancy to Bible times, in the very dawn of history, so simple and primitive were the people, their dwellings and their mode of living.

Coming back to the national highway they crossed in to Arizona and just after crossing a bridge, between Winslow and Flagstaff, their machine fell into a deep hole and was so badly damaged that it could not be repaired at once with the meager facilities of the garages in that section, so Mr. Lampert sold it and they came home on the train, arriving yesterday noon.

Mrs. Lampert said that in all their travels they did not see any city that would begin to compare with Glendale in beauty, cleanliness and surroundings; and wherever Los Angeles is known, Glendale is also. A number of people were met who had paid visits to Southern California and all retained vivid and most pleasant memories of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Lampert traveled 6000 miles by auto and 1600 miles by train and boat. They were gone four months lacking one day.

Doran St. P.-T. A.

The Doran St. P.-T. A. held its initial meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon at the school building. Mrs. L. W. Sonntag, 119 South Glendale, president of the Doran street organization, presided over a most successful meeting. Attendance was good, and many new members were registered. A social hour and refreshments preceded a worth-while program. Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., the new president of the Federation, gave an able talk on politics, women in the home, and the advantages of the P.-T. A. She discussed the proposed Twelfth Amendment, which concerns the State University. This institution is in great need of funds, and if the amendment does not carry, tuition will have to be paid by the students. Prof. Richardson D. White, Supt. of Schools, gave an impressive address on Patriotism, and the Sixteenth Amendment, which proposes to put all public schools under state, instead of district, jurisdiction. This talk was followed by a recitation of the country's creed by little Miss Blythe Renquist. The session was closed with a business meeting, the main topic being the raise of dues.

Bible Conference

In connection with the fifth annual Bible conference, announced to begin next Sunday, Oct. 10th, and continue for the week, at the Glendale Presbyterian church (church of the lighted cross) it will be of public interest to know that the program committee has been able to command the services of Rev. Harry Rimmer for the evening service 7:30. He brings with him his evangelistic singer, who is among the finest in the country.

Mr. Rimmer is an original character. For several years he has been pastor of the leading Quaker churches, and is now a member of the Los Angeles Presbytery. He has had many offers from foreign governments to take charge of physical education in their universities. A recent offer from the Nanking University with its 6000 students, also an offer from the American Red Cross Society, to become instructor in lifesaving. He has turned all these offers aside to go to the lumber camps of California, his boyhood home, to preach the gospel of Christ. Don't fail to hear him next Sunday evening.

Card Club

Mrs. H. G. McDougall, 204 Burchett, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Agnes Powell, 206 Burchett, entertained the Los Angeles 500 club, of which they are members, on Wednesday evening. Sixteen couples were present. The ladies' top score was won by Mrs. Sunde, and the gentleman's by Mr. Chalmers, both of Los Angeles. The color scheme, blue and yellow, was carried out in all details. Flowers were bachelors' buttons and French chrysanthemums, bon-bon dishes were blue and yellow, and the score cards were painted in the same colors. Dainty refreshments were served the guests.

State News

By United Press

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—Now that prohibition has closed the saloon, what has become of the old-fashioned brand of cigars that used to decorate the bars? You all know the kind—the variety that the wary yet overladen celebrant got when he hiccoughed "Jus' gimme a schmoke," the kind the bartender used to take out of the box when someone insisted that he "join us," and then put back in the showcase when the generous patron was gone. Closest investigation reveals that the far famed "bar cigar" has gone the way of the Scotch and soda and the Dodo. At any rate, it's going. Figures covering tobacco taxes collected by the internal revenue office show that the last year cigar makers have turned out steadily increasing quantities of high class cigars and steadily decreasing quantities of the "jus' gimme smoke" variety. And a call at half a dozen likely looking places for one of the old bartender's favorites brought forth the information that "there's no demand for it any more—we don't keep it."

SEATTLE, Oct. 7—Three hundred western laundry owners were being entertained here today by local laundrymen. They are delegates to the thirty-seventh annual convention of the Laundry Owners' Association which meets in San Francisco the week beginning October 11.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—That most elusive of sepulchres—the grave of Don Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo—once more is to be the subject of a search. Convinced that it is located on San Miguel Island in the Santa Barbara group off the Southern California coast, the Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce and Senator James D. Phelan have jointly become interested in another search for the hardy Spanish explorer's remains. "His ashes should rest in a casket of gold, strewn with poppies and some monumental shaft bespeak the gratitude of the people," Phelan wrote to the Santa Barbara Chamber in discussing the proposed search. Several times in past years attempts to locate the grave have been made. Often these expecitions have been rewarded by the discovery of sundry skulls and skeletons, but always the story has been the same—the remains were not those of Cabrillo.

Grandmother's Garden

By Rose Mills Powers

Grandmother's garden was edged with box,
And quaint were the flowers that grew;
Foxglove and fennel and lady locks,
Marporam, mint, and rue;
Fragrant it was with mullein pink,
And lilies of white and gold;
Never was sweeter a spot, I think,
Grandmother's garden old.

Grandmother's garden, she loved it so!
Rainy the day or fair,
Down its borders she'd always go,
Watching the bloom with care;
Weeding and pruning with skilful hand,
But gentle; just so, they say,
She reared her children, a goodly band,
Who grandmother bless today.

Grandmother's garden! If souls return
I am sure that she comes once more,
When deepens the green in the ivy urn,
And crocuses deck the door;
For fields Elysian on earthly bowers
May border, could dull eyes see,
A gracious presence amid her flowers
Grandmother still may be.

eration, and if there is action taken it is taken in the midst of a big fight, which is detrimental to the best interests of every citizen.

The contention of the Evening News is that the question of municipal improvements should first be referred to a mass meeting of all the citizens, and then the merits of such improvements should be discussed and, at the proper time, a vote taken as to the wish of the people as to the need of the improvements. If the vote is in the affirmative, a committee from the mass meeting should appear before the Board with a petition making the request as outlined at the mass meeting. By this method of procedure it would give the Board of Trustees an opportunity to put in their time at regular meetings considering questions that are vital to the city's interests, and not have their time taken by listening to dozens of talks that have merit but should be made elsewhere.

These mass meetings should be held at a time when it would be possible for members of the Board to be present so they could hear the discussions and take part in them if they think best to do so.

Heretofore the complaint has been made by those who call mass meetings for the consideration of proposed municipal improvements that the people do not attend in sufficient numbers to make the mass meeting a representative one, and when the question endorsed by the mass meeting is referred to the Board of Trustees, and an election is called, the proposition presented is voted down by a class who refused to participate in the mass meeting. The reason for refusing to participate in mass meetings has been attributed to the fact that the average mass meeting is so carelessly governed that personal abusive attacks are allowed to take place in the meeting, and rather than be subject to these abusive attacks, citizens do not attend. It is an easy matter to have this very valid objection removed by properly organizing the meeting.

Many Ceremonies

That Portuguese politeness is most ceremonial and may proceed to an extraordinary extent is indicated in the case, say, of a visit to a high dignitary.

The caller ascends a magnificent staircase, passes through a long suite of rooms to the apartment in which the dignitary is seated. He is received with many bows and smiles.

When the visit is concluded the caller bows and prepares to depart. When he reaches the door he must, according to the invariable custom of the country, make another salutation.

He then discovers that his host is following him and that the inclination is returned by one equally profound.

When the caller arrives at the door of the second apartment the dignitary is standing on the threshold of the first, and the same ceremony is again passed between them. When the third apartment is gained the caller observes that his host is occupying the place the caller has just left in the second. The same civilities are then renewed, and these polite recipracations are continued until the caller has traversed the whole suite of apartments.

At the balustrade the caller makes a low and, as he supposes, a final salutation. But, no; when he has reached the first landing place the host is at the top of the stairs; when the caller stands on the second landing place his host has ascended to the first, and upon each of these occasions their heads wag with increasing humility. Finally the journey to the foot of the stairs is accomplished.

Cat's Value Regulated

There are many legends concerning the Manx cat. One of them tells that, long ago, when the isle was ruled by the Cambrian princes, the value of a cat was set by law. One of these old laws reads as follows: "The price of a kitten before it can see is a penny; after it can see, before it catches a mouse, two pence; and after it catches a mouse, four pence."

Copper's Great Value

Next after gold and silver, copper is to us the most interesting of all the metals. Fresh and free of corrosion (as seen in a new-minted cent) it is really more beautiful than gold, having a more colorful and brilliant luster. It is incomparably more useful than gold, serving as it does a vast number of employments for which there is no satisfactory substitute.

Gun Barrels

A rather interesting side light on the question of gun barrel life is a determination of the actual length of time to which a good shotgun barrel is subjected to the force and burning effect of the powder charge during its lifetime. If 100,000 shots are fired from a shotgun the inside of the barrel is actually exposed to the flame of the powder charge for about four minutes.
